Texas Comptroller's Office to Offer Local Tax Help

Comptroller Susan Combs' office will offer a free seminar to assist local taxpayers with their state taxes on Wednesday, Dec. 3, from 10 a.m. to noon.

"Operating a business has many challenges, but figuring out your taxes should not be one of them," Combs said. "Whether you are a new taxpayer or one who has been in business for many years, this seminar will help you understand the laws that apply to you and your business."

At the seminar, taxpayers can learn about sales tax forms, taxability issues, taxpayer responsibilities and the array of services and information available from the Comptroller's office to assist taxpayers. Comptroller representatives will answer questions and provide assistance to attendees.

The seminar will take place at the Waxahachie Chamber of Commerce, located at 102 YMCA Drive in Waxahachie.

For more information about the seminar, call the Comptroller's Dallas Northeast Field Office at (972) 792-5800.

Those who are unable to attend the seminars can call the Comptroller's toll-free tax assistance line at (800) 252-5555. Tax forms and tax information can also be found on the Comptroller's Web site, www.window.state.tx.us.
